

Mon 3/23/92

MOUNTAIN HOME AR 72653

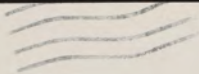

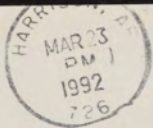

Dear Mr. Lamb:

On the call in program at 7 on EST today, the 2 political pundits from Wall Street Journal and Happens are too young to remember Franklin Delano Roosevelt. I suggest you go back to the newspaper and magazines, and radio to see how his candidacy was received by the political pundits of that era.
It will probably give you a clue to Mr. Ross Perot's popularity. He has proved himself as a businessman and strategist. Neither the President or that phony Bill Clinton begin to have his credentials. Your over form of govt. is a disaster.
We need a big, comprehensive experiment to improve the Federal Govt. now. Yours,

P.S. Neither the Dem or Rep. candidate is a "newcast".

001330 MAR 26 92

USA 19

The C SPAN Networks
400 No. Capitol Street, N.W.
Suite 605
Washington, D.C. 20001