Dear Brian:

When I first started watching "C-Span" about (5) five years ago, I thought it was the greatest thing that could happen to television and for the viewing public. Your program was the most important program of my day - then.

In the past year and a half - your program is the "pits" in my view. I hardly watch it anymore.

First of all, it is a disgrace to have 30 or 4 high paid nerds from Newsweek, Times etc., "Washington Times, New York Times, Post etc" and all of those anti Clinton & anti Democrats sitting around day after day like a bunch of "Chicken Cocks" talking about politics. Most of them are closed minded, don't know the first thing about real history, don't know the real feeling of the people. They speak "garbage." You can't even get smart people to come on your program. For a long time, I turn on your program & after 10 minutes I can't take it anymore.

You & your smug smile when the guests and callers call & cut Clinton to pieces.

You love the praise you get Bryan!
You people talk about Character.
What about your own Character & those of your guests. You sit there and tell stories that are not true - instead of giving Clinton some credit for what he's done so far and is trying to do for the Country, you tear him up. Shame!

No wonder this Country is in such sad shape - when we cut up good people for the sake of politics. The young people think this is what it's supposed to be like / well, it is not.

How are we ever going to be a strong-intelligent Country, when every day we have programs that defame our president & everything he tries to do - you try to discredit him.

The old saying is "what goes around - comes around" I think your program is on its way out! Someday - you will be history too. I am a Clinton supporter, finally, the Country is getting some stability.

when you talk about character, look at yourself and your guests, don't you ever get disgusted making fun of Pres. Clinton and Mrs Clinton? Don't you ever feel ashamed of a program that you had on any day? If you don't, then you are worse than I think you've become.

I wish you would quit calling President Clinton a liar, I'm glad we are not bombing in other countries, he is not acting alone! All you jerks want is for us to get into another bombing, anywhere, it doesn't matter where - (I think) you people are bored to death!

Get real - get on with real issues like, talk about how we can stop crime - get health care - create jobs - why don't you try to help solve problems instead of trying to create problems? You have a duty to the public to better the country not make it worse.

I know this letter is quite long - but I am a Senior Citizen very proud of President Clinton. He was not my first choice in the primary election, however, I now feel he was the best choice. He is brilliant, thoughtful and cares about people. In my day, I've seen a lot of do-nothings, who drift along - get a big paycheck - and are adored by people who need a "warm body" to idolize. Like Reagan & Bush. We don't need watchdogs - we need work dogs.

If we took care of our homes like some people take care of the country - they'd all be rotten in a few years too.

C-span is no longer number one in my ~~day~~^{TV} viewing. Special programs are fine, but yours program is out.

Yours truly

P.S. Several other family members feel the same way - especially the sister who got me hooked on your programs.
