COMMENTS

Per my conversation with Danny of your office, I am cancelling my subscription to C-Span because of the story you ran today on President Clinton's alleged extra-marital affairs. C-Span has sunk to the same level of decadence as regular television. CLEAN UP YOUR ACT!

Insulted and Disgruntled,

Re Today's interview with reporter
re: his story on alleged Clinton extra-marital sex

I am a new subscriber to Cable. I specifically selected C-Span because I do not relish TV shows like Geraldo, Oprah, & Phil Donohue or the other expose shows. I also try to avoid the news shows because I am sick to death of being depressed by stories of mass murderers and pregnant women being shot. So when I turned on C-Span today at 4:30pm and got a dose of this "story" on President Clinton's alleged sexual activity, I thought I had turned on Geraldo by mistake. The people who tune in C-Span deserve better than this. A sexual expose on the President, Madonna, or a Cardinal in Chicago is beneath your station, or so I thought. Obviously, you are more concerned with pandering to viewers' base instincts than presenting real news and political stories. It is with great sadness that I must cancel my subscription to C-Span. Though I will miss the real news and political stories, I cannot in good conscience pay even $1.95 per month for a station which trashes viewer sensibilities the way you have today. The only source of information I have left is channel 13, public television. Let's hope they don't start running this type of programming too.

Respectfully,
