Program Director C Spaw

Dear Sir,

This is to thank you profusely for carrying the Inaugural Day activities so fully with excellent commentaries.

I always experience much nostalgia when any films are shown from "The Capital". Back in the twenties I was a part of those who stood on Pennsylvania Ave. and witnessed all the historical events that took place. Before radio The Evening Star kept us informed so Washingtonians turned out for Harding, Coolidge, Hoover and Roosevelt.

Your coverage will long be remembered, and not only are young people uplifted, I feel encouraged for all of us after the lack of interest in the needs of average and poor Americans.

My only regret today was that I didn't have a map of D.C. to identify the buildings on the Avenue - I couldn't remember the ^{name of} statue at 10th on Pennsylvania Ave. The Wash.

Gas Light Co was on Tenth Street when I walked there, and street cars travelled Pennsylvania Ave.

My best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,
(Mrs) [REDACTED]
