Dear Mr. Lamb,

Ramesh Ponnuru is the most ^{3/12/99} anxious tweep you've ever had on

C-span with his smug, self-satisfied smirk and coldness to the core. Yet I thank you for letting him have his own segment on Washington Journal, rather than the kind of verbal ping pong between political opponents you sometimes have. It is so much more restful and informative, and I'll happily watch Ruth Comitf accorded the same privilege. I used to avoid the show when it was all verbal ping pong. I mean, the collars are
