To whom it may concern.

I really enjoy watching C-SPAN, and I would like for you to put someone on, that could give us a thorough understanding of what this New World Order is, that the President wants. I mean like: who started it, when did it get started, who is in charge of it, what is the ideology of the people involved with it, what it is, how will it effect us the people here in America, and all in the World. Has this already been decided that we will have this New World Order? Should we not have it thoroughly explained to us first, and then put on a Ballot so that we, the American people can make a choice if we want that or not, depending on what it is, and how it will effect us. Shouldn't we the American people have a right to vote on that? Isn't this the American way, that we have the freedom to vote for something that will effect us all? I am really concerned that the Reporters and the Media has said nothing about it.
