P.S. How far in advance did MR. Bush receive the questions he was asked on his half-hour interview?

TO C-SPAN: I think it is a shame that your normally excellent station has decided to become a Republican mouthpiece in this crucial election year. Allowing Mr. Bush, his son and Mr. Quayle enormous periods of time without subjecting any of them to viewer call-in amounts to a big, fat donation to Republican coffers. Let Mr. Lamb become defensive-- as he does when C-SPAN is accused of bias--he ought to review the tone he uses, and the time devoted, to those from the other party.
