Dear Mr Lamb:

I listen to C. Span for years now. Thank you for presenting the issue Pro and Con - Great job!!

I listen today and tried to call in, but could not get through.
you had Author's Edward Imberlake and Wm C Triplett II on "year of the Get" their book was newly released. - I heard of this book on Book Notes so when it was released to the store's early November. I tried to find it, here in Amherst, Mass. - At Walden Book Store at the Hadley Mall, Hadley Mass I finally found they had one of two they had ordered.

I* showed on the Computer.
It took the Clerk ten minutes and my insistance to find the Book in the back side of the store -

I questioned "why, this book, was not up front with the new Releases." -

I went to Media Play also.
at Hadley Mall, they again to day said the book was on order." (I asked for this book two weeks back) -

Local book stores are not putting this book up front where the jacket alone would make one curious alone.

I have been challenging this!

I think this book should be part of ^{my} Reading list in Colleges and Schools.

What a sad nation we have become!

Mr Clinton, should Resign for ^{his} disgrace, he has brought to the White House and US Presidency.

I listened to all of Ken Starr Impeachment on C-span Wonder^{ful} job you did -

When I have been in Washington, D.C. I have gotten into the Senate and the House and sat in the Gallery listening to the Debates. But as you know you are only allowed a few minutes - If not too many visitors, the Ushers, have let me stay longer. -

I heard the man - who called from Amherst today wanted to tell him to ask for the Book in ^{our} local stores This is a strong Democratic area.

I was one of the 197 here in Amherst, who voted for Paul Cellucci in the Primary for Governor of Massachusetts

I am Republican!

I enjoy British Parliament I see an C. Span. I have the
"C. Span U.S. Congress Handbook" have 1993 and 1995 (missed this last one). I use it a lot.

On Book notes I heard of The Professor and The Mad Man.
I read it. It was very good.

Thank you again for all the interesting subjects you present in good taste.

I remain
Sincerely:
