

(Please excuse the lined paper)

CC: S. Trahern
3918-90 3748-90
NOV 12 REC'D

Brian Lamb

C-Span Networks

Holiday, Fla. 34691
November 2, 1990

Dear Brian:

NOV 16 ANS'D

Thank God for you and C-Span. The door to Open Government has been closing inch by inch and I'm proud to see a big foot like C-Span in its path.

If I may however, I would like to make a suggestion that you choose your guests and panelists from a wider range. Time after time you have people from the establishment news media. They do not have the guts to criticize the Administration or a view from the norm.

Please try to have people like Lawrence Paterson, Larry Abraham, Ron Paul and correspondents from papers like The Spotlight a Washington, D.C. Weekly. Authors like Ralph Efferon, (The New World Order), Pete Brewton of the Houston Post on The 5+2, Rip-Off Col. Fletcher Prouty and Lt. Col. James (Bo) Gritz on MIA's and the CIA's involvement in drugs, Father Valentine Martin, "The Keys of - his Blood," The story of The 'New World Order' and the Church. etc. etc. .
- over -

So you see Brian if the aim of C-Span is to inform, there is a neverending supply of information available.

Point in fact, your most recent panel call-in program with Jacelene Calmes, (Wall St. Journal), Norman Sender, (United Press), and Carl Cannon (Nite Rider News). I was amazed, when a lady caller related that Mr. Bush's Call for A 'New World Order', would mean the end of our Liberty and Sovereignty, along with everything Free Americans fought, died, and stand for. She asked the panel to comment. You smiled and asked for someone and Bush entered the scene. You then asked Jacelene and she looked scared out of her shoes. She sat saying nothing for about ten seconds and finally said she did not wish to comment. Carl tried to save the moment with garble about some other subject. Why Brian?

Thanks you,
Sincerely,