C Span,
400 No. Capitol Street,
Washington, D.C.

Why do I like C Span?

That is not difficult to answer because I can tell you from the heart that I prefer it to all other secular stations because it gives one the opportunity to hear both sides without the tinge of ridicule being ever present in news programs on other stations when the right is mentioned. They almost without exception give the impression that right is blight and that only the liberals have any right to mention with respect. I salute you for being fair.

Also they like to give the erroneous impression that all people who are not lily white prefer the left. You would be surprised how many "third world" --that is to say (in their book) darker people--- love Ronald and Nancy and will vote Republican no matter how many thousands of times we hear that the President "don't care about nobody but the rich and the beautiful" It just is not true. He is good, intelligent (more than the left is) a Christian, kind and fair to everyone.

Sincerely

A Friend

Did not write to win a trip, but only to say the foregoing facts so that you will know that the left does not know everything as they think they do.
