To Whom It May Concern:

Today I
watched your program, Media Coverage of the President, with Turner CNN, Frantz, LA Times, and Ellen Hume, Annenberg Washington Program.

I was surprised to hear Ellen Hume speak as she did about infidelity not being an important moral trait in a President. We do not care to go back to other Presidents and talk of their unfaithfulness, but it is important to have a President who has Character.
He does not need to imitate
Jack Kennedy.

The Clintons have not been truthful.

This is an important story. If Pres Clinton abused his power, that is dangerous. The two patrol officers are doing their country a good deed by standing up to what they experienced, and they should be heard.

Those journalists who overlooked affairs of Presidents were not doing their job in not reporting it.

Attorney Gen. Janet Reno should have a thorough investigation in The White River Land Deal, and the suicide question of Vince Foster.

Sincerely yours,
