Re: Kathryn Graham Book Party for Art Buchwald aired on C-SPAN 27 October 1996

C-SPAN defines itself as "a public service created by America's cable television companies"

Pray tell how the above book signing party is constructed as a "public service"
??? How does this fit into your public service definition ???

From what I saw of the above, it was just a bunch of white Washington elites butt-patting each other in an exclusive setting - a la Ben Bradlee and his
"float" Sally Quinn! What
"public service" does this perform? And why should cable subscribers be paying for this sort thing? How do you justify this as a "public service"? [REDACTED]
