

How dare C-span ask former Bush people how Clinton's doing!
You're taking a great deal of credit for C-span's obvious dislike of the President, and it shows!!!!
We hear your conservative callers "thank you" for the way you conduct President Clinton's inquisition, which had you done the same to Reagan and Bush instead of covering up for them, they might have been indicted and impeached, which you're trying to do to the President, and he hasn't even spit on the side walk.

How can you even compare President Clinton to those two crooks - Let me answer that for you.

By inviting those reporters, Senators and Rep.
critical of the President you're doing what your Conservative employers are paying you for. Would we be asking too much, if just once in a while you'll take a knife to your heart, and invite a Clinton supporter ^{to} ^{much?} _{for you}

P.S. Democrats have to work for a living, so that's why these Conservatives can call in and are obsessively rude.
