Gentlemen:

I know that you try to be objective and quite "middle of the road" on all questions, allowing both sides access to your programs. However, I do believe that you should provide more time to promote the majority of American's views on crime and punishment.

I am attaching a copy of a letter which I have written President Clinton, with copies to key Senators and Representatives. The plea is obvious. "We, the people" are getting tired of our leaders not listening to us.

In the case of the "great Oklahome incident" we find ourselves about to become involved in another case where inadequate laws, ACLU interference, and defense lawyers might not allow justice to prevail. We need so many spokesmen for the majority's point of view and C-Span could be of great help. You could hardly say that you should be "neutral" on this subject.

Most American view television, radio, newspapers and magazines as medians to make money and not as supporters of "causes" which are shared by the over-whelming majority of Americans. The above sit idly by and say, " We're just supposed to report the news". Except, of course, when they thoroughly report how the "civil rights" of a convicted murderer are in jeopody.

We are mad here in America ... and we need the media to help us speak out.

Yours truly,
