

Dear C-SPAN

I have to tell you how much I appreciated the great job you did at the Democratic Convention.

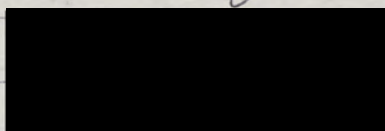

It is so refreshing to watch a news event where the news anchors are not constantly telling you what is taking place. And they don't insist upon carrying on a conversation when you are trying to listen to the speakers.

At 89, this was probably my last opportunity to witness an event of this kind. It was wonderful to see so many young people - people of every color and ethnic background - and so many young women standing for election. Cheers!

With all its failings, with all its flaws, isn't this a wonderful country?

Thanks C-Span, for the great service you render. I didn't know about you until recently but I'm making up for lost time.
