

I tried to wait a few days to send this to see if I would change my mind — I'm still livid

I'm still sending it

g, J... to the ceremony to honor an American statesman and former President, Richard Nixon. The reason it was good to do that, is that for 20 years Mr. Nixon has been disparaged, ridiculed and insulted in the public media and no one has dared to defend his name. His children and grandchildren have grown up hearing nothing but negative slams against him.
In fact, Hitler has not gotten worse press than President Nixon. But you have succeeded in waking us up, Brian.
The Silent Majority will rise again! I am outraged, frustrated, and seething. You can be assured that I am not going to take this anymore. I know that there are millions who feel the way I do--this would explain the meteoric rise of talk radio--it has become our only refuge. The liberal, know-it-all, politically-correct, snob elite are in for a challenge to their exclusive grip on the public forum, our children's minds, and the writing of history. I am so fed up I have no choice but to save my country from the likes of Witcover and McCarthy. I can't believe that he said it would be "hypocritical" of him not to excrete his views of our Pres-

by seeing to it
that the truth drowns out their falsified stories.

4-26-94

Dear Brian Lamb,

It was an excellent choice to put that fat-mouth pig, Jules Witcover, as a backdrop to the ceremony to honor an American statesman and former President, Richard Nixon. The reason it was good to do that, is that for 20 years Mr. Nixon has been disparaged, ridiculed and insulted in the public media and no one has dared to defend his name. His children and grandchildren have grown up hearing nothing but negative slams against him. In fact, Hitler has not gotten worse press than President Nixon. But you have succeeded in waking us up, Brian. The Silent Majority will rise again! I am outraged, frustrated, and seething. You can be assured that I am not going to take this anymore. I know that there are millions who feel the way I do--this would explain the meteoric rise of talk radio--it has become our only refuge. The liberal, know-it-all, politically-correct, snob elite are in for a challenge to their exclusive grip on the public forum, our children's minds, and the writing of history. I am so fed up I have no choice but to save my country from the likes of Witcover and McCarthy. I can't believe that he said it would be "hypocritical" of him not to excrete his views of our President. The obvious remedy would have been to keep a respectful silence for three days. Then he and the others could have picked back up on their excoriation of Mr. Nixon. But no, they couldn't keep their ugly mouths shut for even two minutes. I am not mad at you, Brian, for having them on. I think you have put us over the edge and we definitely needed it. The middle class is very restless.

by seeing to it
that the truth
drowns out their falsified stories.

The press should speak for the people,

~~the press should speak for the people,~~ ALL the People even the patriots

Southlake, Texas
76092