

On Tue. Oct. 5 '99 at, 2:30 to 3:30, I saw the House discussing a child rights legislation. For a long while I was so proud of them and their bipartisan compassion.
It was so nice. But then, bam [REDACTED] They bipartisanly took out the closed circuit TVs to protect child abuse victims emotionally [REDACTED] during harsh question asking. Thanks for revealing this painful moment. [REDACTED]
