

Dear Dean

AUG 17 ANS'D

Jas 26-91

Regarding the journalist Ra table of this morning 8 AM.
It's a question for I Coons - Wash Times.

If the Urely Horton ad was not a shabby racial tactic (Mr Coons claims only in eyes of democrats what a cover-up!) Then why why did Lee Atwater seem judgment day approach - reform his Church - and in putting his spiritual house in order (so to speak) feel it necessary to apologize to Gov Dukakis?

And you asked why is he still so popular. Jonathan Korol has your answer - Sixty million people are illiterate (1/4 the populace) The idea that one doesn't have to be literate in order to vote is common fiction. Thos Jefferson was deathly afraid of rabble. Failure of learning is making us a nation of boobles.
When the ignorant go out to vote the nation will go down the tubes.
Hague Johnson cited it as one of the four reasons of our Country's possible failure - the Cynicism and inattention of the citizenry.

James Hayes
W DC

I live in a village (265 Cordos) where the people would vote for Mickey Mouse if he were a Republican. They know nothing about whats happening and dont care!

Our Rep is the most nauseous slimy sycophant on the scene. While in DC he romps around with Gov (ala nude) in White House pool In winter time he spends our tax dollars romping around Barbados beaches etc. - But hes secure - a graduate of the local religious college and his name starts with a Van! and he tells his promoters - (womens societies) they should continue praying for a Christian man in Wash DC.

I could gag.

Talk about limited terms - hes ten good reasons for it.

As much from Western Mich
your show is terrific - should be required viewing in the Nations Schools

[REDACTED]
Jenison, MI 49428

C-Span Networks
400 N Capital St

Route 650

Brian Lamb

Washington DC
20001