C-SPAN PLANS SPECIAL COVERAGE FOR "SUPER TUESDAY"

--Key Issues and Players Spotlighted as Race to the White House Intensifies--

Washington D.C., March 6, 1992 -- C-SPAN, the Cable Satellite Public Affairs Network, will offer "Super Tuesday" preview programming beginning this weekend, and innovative simulcasts the night of the Primary.

On Saturday, March 7 at 8:00 PM (ET), C-SPAN will televise the first Presidential Health Care Forum - a debate amongst the Democratic presidential contenders - sponsored by the Miami Herald and WTVJ, NBC Miami. Governor Bill Clinton (D-AR), Former Sen. Paul Tsongas (D-MA) and Former Governor Jerry Brown (D-CA) will contrast health care reform ideas before an audience of Florida health professionals from the Radisson Center in Miami. The debate takes place at 2:00 PM (ET) and is moderated by Senator Jay Rockefeller (D-WV).

Then, Monday night, March 9 at 6:30 PM (ET) C-SPAN's regular weekly program "Campaign Call-In" (which airs every Monday night until election day) will feature guest James Carville, Campaign Strategist for the Clinton for President campaign, discussing strategy and issues in the "Super Tuesday" contest. Mr. Carville will respond to viewers around the country from 7:15 - 8:00 PM (ET).

On "Super Tuesday", March 10, beginning at 10:00 PM (ET) with open phones, C-SPAN will simulcast local news programs from key Primary states, Texas and Florida News coverage of ballot returns, candidate speeches, and key regional issues will be provided by KHOU, CBS Houston, and WFLA, NBC Tampa. The two-hour program will be interspersed with viewer calls as election results are tabulated.

C-SPAN is now available in 55 million homes nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.
