Enclosed is a release about one of your "hometown boys"
Bruce Collins, who has been named General Counsel to C-SPAN cable network. The Collins family has been a long-time resident of Owega area, and I thought this might be of interest to you.

Bruce is taking after his father Robert Collins, who has been in private practice for the past 25 years in the upperstate New York area.

Hope you can use the release and photo. If you have any more questions, please give me a call.

Thanks for your time.

COLLINS NAMED C-SPAN'S GENERAL COUNSEL

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Bruce Collins, son of Mr. & Mrs. Robert A. Collins of 344 Front Street, Owega, New York, has been named C-SPAN's General Counsel in addition to his responsibilities as Vice President of Corporate Development. C-SPAN is a round-the-clock public affairs cable television network, headquartered in Washington, D.C.

C-SPAN Chairman and CEO Brian Lamb said: "With C-SPAN's continued corporate growth, it becomes more efficient to bring much of our legal work in-house to handle the myriad of business and legal details the Network encounters. With the combination of his legal expertise and knowledge of C-SPAN, Bruce is the ideal candidate for the job."

While Collins retains his purely business-related responsibilities, additional staff will assist in the management of the C-SPAN Fund and other revenue-generating projects.

Collins joined C-SPAN in 1980 as Director of Operations and in 1985 was named Vice President of Corporate Development. Previously, Collins served at the National Cable Television Association (NCTA) from 1977 to 1980 in government relations. From 1974 to 1977, he worked as a legislative assistant on Capitol Hill.

Collins received a J.D. degree from the National Law Center at George Washington University. He graduated with a B.S. degree in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University.

Currently, C-SPAN is seen in 31 million homes via 2,650 cable system affiliates.
