G. Will

This is the second and the last letter I will write to you. What a performance on Booknotes. Your knowledge of Edmund Burke has already been disputed by Paul Gigot, so spare us the pontification. Liberal as you are, your wife works for the Government and we know how it benefits one other member of your family. We also know how there was a Washington Magazine who wrote something nasty about you and you threatened them with something, so much for tolerance and freedom of speech.

Term limits will not work. It will become worse. The people will come in and some of them will behave more recklessly. In New Jersey there is term limit on Governor's office and see what happened, we got Kean and then Florio. Both irresponsible to the extreme look at New Jersey budget before Kean came and when he left. They all try to buy votes.

Solution is Constitutional Amendment where they cannot raise revenue unless there is at least 66% vote. Government is for general welfare and that means if they want my money I should have ~~seem~~ say, at present I don't.

1 barrel No matter how many K George Bush has, Clinton and his party and you are lepers.
