O- big impeach

People out here are outraged in these Hearings against the president. The republican committee has shown no facts for impeachment.

This is just a party out to get the presidents head. Because they can't sleep at night knowing Clinton beat them in the last presidential election. Alot of us still think the president was set up.

Its dirty that the republican committee ask Questions to the presidents lawyers and witnesses but never give them time to answer. The Republicans burn up the clock. Now is this fair?

Half the Republicans on this committee probably have affairs. Maybe they should be checked out.

Star cost ~~up~~ ^{up} over $45,000,000 and came up with nothing.

• (at least nothing to impeach)

No wonder 70 percent of the American people support the president.

• a lot of Republicans would vote for no impeachment. But they can't.

• Why because they're being threatened by the party's top dogs to vote the way they want them to vote or suffer the consequences when they run again for re-election.

(This is plan to see.)

We sent these representatives to Washington to do good things for us. And vote and stand up for the way they feel about issues. Instead the top dogs run them. Now is this the kind of person you want running your area?

or have someone who stands up to these top dogs?

So I'll close and hope you'll attack for a change the republican party.

Will be watching C-span to see if you'll do this. If not will try CNN news. Thank you!

- also - alot of women are up-set with R= Lindsey Graham on the committee. Calling women

Madonnas, and asking for it
by wearing short dresses.

I am a man and I didn't like his attack on women either.

P.S. also by watching this committee. Graham and Bono sit beside each other.
It seems there very friendly.
FF you know what we mean.

Thanks Again
