Dear Brian,

C-Span provides a wonderful service for the public. Until I retired from teaching two years ago, I did not know about its outstanding discussions, panelists, and interviews. You do present balanced programs, so don't take criticisms of lack of balance too seriously. Also, you are the best moderator.

Today you featured Sidney Blumenthal and Suzanne Fields. Near the end of the program a caller said Sidney was a member of the Council of Foreign Affairs, which he ^(Sidney) said was so. I would like to know more about that organization and was hoping Sidney would say more about it, such as what is its goal, who is on it, and how do you get membership. Please think about doing a whole discussion about the Council, including Mr. Blumenthal.

Very truly yours
