

6:29 am. MON. 4/25/94 (are you older + than 51?) ^{my mom's impression is that you would know the right answer} I'm watching you + Richard Nixon + loving it, + it is helping me be patient as I put the needle in + out of the piece of plastic canvas I hope will turn into a glasses case. Nixon's ability to come back has no doubt inspired many people tempted by failure to give up. His comments on + your questions about his interest in sports is giving me some thoughts on the subject, + it's one I'm always trying to figure out regard to ~~how men react to it~~ ^{why men like} it. Murphy's law prevails cause I know (oh, I like him saying 'I don't like to psychoanalyze myself'. I'll have to remember that. I do it too much (in words, I guess.) you've already been to Dallas (the bus), + I'll be here next year when you go to St. Louis. I'll try to tack a friend in to checking it out. Haha, I'll get them to pretend they're me. *
