

C-SPAN Mon. 11/4/91 7 A (CST)

cc: S. Trahern L

Barbara Reynolds met her match. (Her thoughts not mine)

Ben Wattenberg's command of the language is awesome. Poor Barbara should have retreated early on.

She herself is a good example of affirmative action. Being a woman and black bought her a good spot in the USA TODAY factory.

Her constant reference to "equality" is confusing. Don't tell her I said so but she is not an equal of Ben in any way shape or form.
As for improvement in her ability, I do not see
it as forthcoming because she seems to be ignorant of any shortcomings in her writing skills and
her communication skills.

*If Ben had not been a guest,
I wouldn't have reviewed her how.*

[Redacted]
Lake Charles, LA 70601

USA 19

00_004 NOV 1991

C-5 PAN

400 N. Capitol ST NW
Washington, D.C. 20001