Dear sirs.

With the British General Election just over two weeks away, will C-Span be offering any coverage of the results?

As a Brit now living and working in the USA, what happens in Britain is very much important to me, so I hope C-Span will dedicate extra time to events on the other side of the Atlantic!

Details of your schedule for the evening of April 9th will be most appreciated, (the 5 hour time difference gives ample chance for Live Primetime coverage in the USA!), and I thank you in advance of your very kind attention.

Yours faithfully
