Dear Brian:

I've been tuned in to your evening program - 10 pm, and I've always held your program in high regard, but the C. Span interviewer asking military personnel question about flights - and various times and almost nosey probing has caused me to sit down and write this "complaint" - I could almost "feel" her probing manner in my living room - Enough - I know now that I need to right now. I try to but this particular program really annoyed me. I thought the men, and girls were very polite under the circumstances.
