Dear C-SPAN,

First of all I want you to know how much I appreciate your intelligent programming and coverage. However, while channel surfing the evening of February 19 I unfortunately noticed you were running a 3 hour taped "Flush" Limbaugh radio show. As much as I believe in fair play and equal time the same cannot be said of Mr. Limbaugh. It was distressing to me to see your normally appropriate programming give further legitimacy and credibility to such a reactionary propagandist. Not only are his self indulgent and narrow minded ideas obnoxious to me and many others, his constant mixing of fact, fiction, and denial to promote his biased opinions are enough to make even Joseph Goebbels' chin drop.

Limbaugh's mean spirited attacks on those who disagree with or criticize him merely showcase the schoolyard bully tactics he uses to advance his conservative broadcast agenda. I don't care if he has an audience of 22 million people, there obviously are a lot of mindless sheep in America who would rather rely on the "prophet" Rush to command their every thought. It is upsetting to me that you would have a willing hand in promoting such an ideological thug by entertaining his wildest wet dream -- to be a true political analyst and/or journalist!

Although I was upset by your decision to broadcast "The Rush Limbaugh Show" perhaps some good came of it. There is always hope that the more he rears his ugly head the more viewers will see what a pompous ass Rush Limbaugh really is. No more, no less!

Sincerely pissed at C-SPAN,
