I enjoy Washington Journal and consider it of great value in its immense information and clarification to the American people

We have recently seen the word "liberal" used in a derogatory manner by others in. My dictionary defines "liberal" as favorable to progress or reform, or pertaining to representational forms of government rather than aristocracies and monarchies, favorable or in accord with concepts of maximum individual freedom, favoring or permitting freedom of action, free from prejudice or bigotry, tolerant, open-minded.

what then is wrong with being liberal?

All good wishes,

Sincerely
