Dear Byron Lamb of CSPAN,

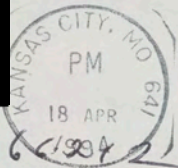

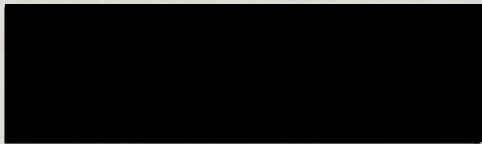

I am a listener and watcher of CSPAN. I am also Black. I would like you to have some conservative Blacks on CSPAN sometimes.

One name I will mention is Emmanuel McLittle of Destiny magazine out of Lansing, Michigan. He took the little bit of money he could gather and started his magazine about 5 or 6 years ago and will soon be in the stores. He debated Jesse Jackson once and really got to him and would love to do it again.

Also I wish you could put CSPAN on the radio, especially in the morning. I get to work late because I stay and watch your show. It would be nice if I could tune in on the way to work. That way I wouldn't have to stay late.

I love your show, keep up the good work
