

002594 JUN 1 1993

May, 1993

Dear C-Span,

Pres. Clinton's public relations problem is not playing Patty Cakes with the Press.

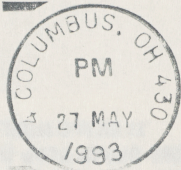

Former Pres. Nixon's Watergate would have been a Will'o'wisp in the Wind, had he been on the right side of the Press.

Regarding tax and spend, if there was not spending during the last twelve years, where in the Sam Hill, did this debt come from?

The Pres. proposed, Congress disposed and I surely did not hear a loud outcry of those who opposed, during that time.

There is quite enough petty partisan picking going on without the Press promoting more.

Citizen's viewpoint

C - Span

444 North Capital St. #650

Washington D.C. 20001