Dear Mr. Lamb,

I will try to restrain myself and not write a book this time. I cannot let today's Washington Journal and open phones go by without a comment.

There are many NASTY Conservatives out there. I thought Mona Charen, Cal? (his name is not worth remembering), Rush, George Will, Novack, Newt, Arney, Wesley, Fawell (spelling) and Robertson; The list goes on and on, were sharp tongued and nasty but Ann Coulter is the Ultimate--

The main reason I am writing is to tell you, and I wish the rest of your Viewing Audience could know I voted for President Clinton Two times and wish I could again. I have not received a penny from the president, I do not do drugs, and I have never had an abortion. I have never had an affair. My husband and I were married when we were both Eighteen years of age and are Celebrating our 35th Anniversary this month.

Granted, democrat politicians have had affairs. So have republicans. All too often the difference is republicans such as Reagan, Newt and Nole dumped their Wives and Married their affairs.
The same politicians who say Gay marriage would redefine marriage. Divorce doesn't?

Conservative republicans do not do drugs? Has Ann ever heard of Susan Molarina (spelling) and Sonny Bono to name a couple. By the way, I have tried to call in and ^{ask} why when a Kennedy dies on the Ski Slopes, the drug tests are in before the funeral. When Sonny Bono dies on the Slopes we have to wait several weeks for the results. I never heard what the results were. It must not have been bad or that "Evil Liberal Press" would have been all over it. I do believe it was the "Evil Liberal Press" that did not leave the Kennedys alone on that issue among many others.

Do conservative Republicans have abortions?
Nope, too close to Ann's level for me to even proceed on that topic. I will say, at the rate Mr. Starr is delving into personal lives, once he has done away with the lawyer -

Client privilege, in due time he or someone else will start to erode the doctor-patient privilege. It is not enough that Computers are presenting a pretty good risk already.

Of family is a Conservative issue. How can the Republicans in good Conscience have Ronald Reagan as their hero? Ann's remark about Jane Wyman being only mentioned in a list of Starlets was cruel and nasty. She bore Ronald's Children, except Patty I believe. Does that have no significant meaning? Is it because of the disfunction of the family or because Nancy was in the picture before he divorced Jane that one does not discuss the mother of his children?

On another topic; All Nixon did wrong was use foul language in the oval office? I watched the hearings. I am very sure Ann did not and I am also sure her research is as narrow minded as her opinions. Some days the republicans relate President Clinton to Watergate to show how awful he is. Today it suited a conservative to say it was no way near the innocent Watergate problems.

The Oval office is the president's office; A human beings office.

It is not a Holy Shrine. Many presidents have said questionable words in that office - Maybe even President Carter. It would be wise for people to remember that all of the allegations of events in the Oval office are all alleged. Ever so conveniently, allegations that can never be proved. I marvel at how these "So Called" Clean minded, Christian, Conservatives can dream all this up.

If ~~we~~ must throw President Clinton out for lying because he can no longer be trusted; why is Newt still speaker of the house? Why should Ollie North's opinion have any validity or even be allowed to run for office? I understand George Bush has yet to turn over papers. Talk about Stonewalling. Ronald Reagan's health today does not excuse him from his part in Iran Contra. The Republicans want to give him credit for so many things but also use his illness to prove he was not aware of Iran Contra. From what I have seen hypocrisy runs deep in Washington, but so much more in the conservative Republican party?

I was very interested in the Caller who asked about what qualified Ann to speak as such an expert on these matters.

SHE DID NOT ANSWER ??

Where did she go to school? What degrees does she have? What experience does she have? What is her personal (the Republicans have opened that door) and professional background?

WHO DOES OWN "HUMAN EVENTS" ?

I want Answers !!

Her Comments on the Percentage of Votes President Clinton received as compared to Reagan and how the percentages in the Approval Polls do not correspond with the number of Votes ~~was~~ ^{were} idiotic. Most people have an opinion but not as many vote. The poll goes according to how the questions are asked. I have received polls from the Christian Coalition and there was no way to positively answer a question about President Clinton. I sent it back and told them what I thought and hoped never to hear from them again.

The right wing conservatives vote.
 Not after hearing both sides of the issues or with much intellect but they do Vote. If the poorer and inner city and blue collar and moderates would Vote more, I believe the Conservatives would meet their match.

Your comment on "open phones" that Ann should be there to defend herself was interesting. Who was there to defend President Clinton while she was defaming him? He was in New York at the U. N. doing his job; a Very good job. It proved why this should have been put aside till the end of his presidential term.

Republicans speak of all the lawyers working for President Clinton. Who made the need for these lawyers? People like Ann Coulter.

As for the caller who said she did not have to say thank you for C-Span because she pays for it. I thank you for the idea of C-Span and for making that idea a reality. Also, thank you for Washington Journal, even though there are days I get totally frustrated with both guests and callers. I have come to see you do your Very best to remain Neutral, but I have to say this. It is the Callers "Quarter" and many of us have sore fingers from trying not days, but weeks and months to get in. Please Do Not Interrupt the Caller! We only have a few minutes, the guest has 90 minutes now if I am correct. I also feel too many are cut off. I know some have to end some should be but please be more careful about that. To try so long to get in and then be terribly nervous and have your thoughts interrupted and then be cut off, it often is not worth the effort.

Thank you so much for the Tacoma Book Center segment. We need more places like that and more information out there about the locations.

Sorry, this is a book.

Sincerely,
