C-SPAN

Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Lamb,

002594 JUN 14 93

00-384 JUN 14 93

I got thru on your 8:00 a.m. call in show 6/3. You accused me of calling in every day, when I had not gotten thru for a few weeks. You cut me off before I asked the question I called about, concerning the connection between education reform and campaign finance reform. That shouldn't surpris me, as that subject make the people you depend on, Congressmen, very nervous. Don't you believe in free speech anymore?

Has some Martian come down and inhabited your body or something? How can the person who got C-SPAN on the air in the first place, so everybody can have the opportunity to hear our looney-toon Congressmen, cut me off before I asked the question I called to ask? I have a gut instinct about people who have heroic qualities and I know you have heroic qualities. But yet it seems you don't believe in free speech. Any more! Do you??

Yes, I think you still believe in free speech! But Clinton and Gephardt don't. I'm sure they hate the things I say. I know this. And I believe they've put the screws to you. Because I don't call anymore than I have for the last 2½ years. I've been censored by quite a few liberals in the media just for having views that aren't part of the liberal Democrat agenda, nothing out of the ordinary. But liberals control and censor the media all the time and I really don't believe you're one of them. Maybe I'm wrong.

C-SPAN's
I've been ~~you're~~ biggest fan since I started making these calls in Jan. '91. Always encouraging people to watch C-SPAN to get it right from the horses mouth. I could easily rake you over the coals on every talk show in this country for taking away my free speech, but I won't because I feel you are one of the good guys and Gephardt's put the screws to you. I feel sorry for you. The Supreme Court said you couldn't put a limit on campaign contributions because that would restrict someone's free speech. Why is it that you don't see that limiting calls to one every 30 days is limiting our free speech? There are several shows that I call alot more than 1 every 30 days, Jim Bohanan's or Rush Limbaugh's to name a few. They all have alot bigger audience than C-SPAN's, no offense, and absolutely no one complains. I really don't understand how someone like you can be a censor unless someone else is putting pressure on you. I don't get it.

Anyone who presses the old redial button on a regular basis like I do will get in atleast once a week, I guarantee you! They're beginning to get more free speech in Russia and we're losing it here, you better believe it. It's pathetic. Most people don't realize it yet, but they're beginning to. Maybe when Sen. Danforth retires he'll become a commentator on KMOX Radio like I asked him to. Since Bob Hardy's death most of them over there are starting to censor their calls. Anyway I'm really disappointed in you. I sure never thought you would turn out that way.

Sincerely,

St. Louis, MO 63123

P.S. Anyone who says they've been trying to get through for a year or two is nothing but a darn liar and you shouldn't be so naive as to believe them. They just don't have as recognizable a voice as mine. That's all.
