Dear Mr. Lamb: That was the most wonderful treat, getting to see the radio talk shows, from, for instance, New York and Maine, etc. To hear the good news from New York, to hear the Mayor and to know his inspiring actions for the city and for N.Y.'s education system. I ~~never~~ <sup>never</sup> read or hear anything which lets me know the good news that is happening around the nation, and so this treat will be long appreciated, enjoyed, remembered. What a gift! Even getting to hear conservative viewpoints is so refreshing, and I would never in life want to try to get along without C-span.... I'm sure if I subscribed to the Washington Times or to the Wall Street Journal or several others, I could hear some of these tidbits, but I do not, and so your program lifts me to a new plateau.

Yours with gratitude,
