

cc: l. kerr
b. kern
h. ewing

COPY for C-SPAN

[REDACTED]
Carol Stream, IL 60188
March 1, 1992

Ms. Debra M. Palandri
Marketing Coordinator
MetroVision of DuPage
County, Inc.
P.O. Box 29
Bloomington, IL 60108

Dear Ms. Palandri:

Some weeks ago, my hopes for the separation of EWTN and C-SPAN II rose to dizzying heights when I noticed the announcements that Black Entertainment Television was to be moved from Channel 40 to somewhere else which later was to be new (?) Channel 53 !! All I knew was that my card listing of available channels ended at # 52 !

I could only conclude that "things were to be opening up". And, when Channel 40 sprung to new life as CNBC (Consumer News and Business Channel), I was happy to know that FNN, Cavett, and McLaughlin were now being made available. Indeed, I could hardly wait to accept the modest additional monthly account charges.

But my continuing hope to see that the twin Siamese connection of EWTN and C-SPAN II be separated has not yet been realized. So, I just wanted to remind you that I am still out here praying with fingers crossed.

While I continue to barrage fellow residents with the joys of signing on with MetroVision, I must confess that results are so hard to realize that I am glad that I am not doing this for a living.

Ms. Calandri page 2

In my immediate neighbourhood I was successful in getting the Bellinhams to sign on but was unable to keep Mrs. Nickmann on board. On the other hand I have continuing opportunities to remind fellow residents that it is really too bad that they have to miss "goodies" such as TV Billiards, etc., etc. And I am confident that they will get in line in the not too distant future

Meanwhile, please keep on thinking about how to get separate channels for EWTN and C-SPAN II.

Cordially yours,

CC: Brian Lamb, Chairman
The Cable-Satellite Public
Affairs Network
400 Capitol St., N.W., Suite 650
Washington, D.C. 20001

000893 MAR 13 1992