Gentlemen:

I am a new viewer of C-Span and recently saw your program "C-Span Live" with guest The Ambassador from Iraq, hosted by Brian Lamb.

I think your approach to give the viewer the maximum time to see & hear your guests (which no network, understandably, is able to do) is great - wonderful, educational, I love it! But to let someone such as the Ambassador from Iraq make untruths go unchallenged by your narrator Mr Lamb is unwise & counterproductive. I say this not only because the guest is a government official of a current foe but generally speaking Propaganda which is untrue cannot be allowed to be spread without SOMETHING said in the way of a rebuttal.

For if this is allowed to continue there will be viewers who think lies or untruths must be true since they are unchallenged by you.

Unless this practice is discontinued by your narrator, guests will look to flock to your cameras because they will rejoice in the knowledge that here we can propagandize and not have to pay a penny for it.

Sincerely,
