

"Hill VS. Thomas"

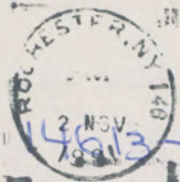

I've never seen a scandal as such as this, with this Anita Hill and Thomas case. It's as she's put her own foot into her own mouth, or it's as a love thing with her. It did not turn out as she hoped it would, Thomas, ~~marry~~ someone else and she gets very upset and now an opportunity occurs she takes it, just to destroy Thomas.

I really feel anyone who waits this long and is an adult is not afraid but, just out to hurt another person. She also states that she is a Baptist and she is from a religious home and family backing. Well, true Christians forgive and forget. plus, "you go to your brother with these matters then and there, not wait ten years later, "what's to gain or lose", but time and ~~lose~~ of money that's all. She should snap out of her little black nightmare she appears to be in, because this is not (Elm Stn), but the real world. I love her the same as Thomas, yet it is sad to see someone drag someone through the mud as that, and yes, I am a black woman also regardless of my background or other ancestors. Ms. Hill should be just ashamed of herself as anyone else should who would wait this long.
