Mr. Brian Lamb

C-Span

Re: 9-9⁴⁵pm Call In

Dear Brian:

Your public certainly gave you "what for" today so I thought I'd even it out like the last caller by saying you are the fairest, most considerate moderator on any medium today.

I'm a liberal and proud of it and I'm delighted you have such a mixture of politics on continuously.
I find C-Span a marvelous outlet and I've learned so much from you all since I discovered you 10 years ago.

Lovely Susan Swain is truly your counterpart — kind, courteous and exceedingly knowledgeable; as well as all the others who, too, are well-informed, intelligent and polite.

I never call because I'm too nervous.
I dislike the woman who says she could have kicked the TV set, so frustrating. I usually write to the person causing the frustration, instead.

I like your books and am currently awaiting the new publication of US Congress Handbook which your customer service advises should be available by Feb 1st —

2) This letter is long overdue and I'm glad the unfairness with which you were treated this morning finally shook me up to do what I've been promising myself ^{for} years.

Thank you for all those wonderful hours I've had frustration as not!

Sincerely
