Dear Mr. Lamb,

I want to thank you for your reply to my first letter. The information you enclosed regarding C:SPAN was very much appreciated.

I would like to go on record as agreeing with several of your callers who did not like the fact that you had two telephone call-in lines regarding the budget hearings. I do not feel it was representative of the people. It is the only way we can get a true picture of how the entire country feels regarding an issue.

My husband and I are retired and our combined income is $46,000.00. This income will put us into the lowest level of a higher income bracket. Since we are old enough to have lived through the depression and several wars, this does not sit well. Also, regarding the lower interest rates: no one seems to mention the lower rates on savings accounts. We dutifully saved our money for retirement all our working lives as to use part of the interest on our savings toward supporting ourselves in retirement. Now this seems to be a dream gone up in smoke.

Your program is greatly appreciated by us and we hope it goes on forever. But please be aware of how many of your guests use your program for their own agenda and you should try to curtail such blatant abuse. As you will gather from the above we would have voted NO on the budget.

Your truly,
