Dear C-SPAN:

Many thanks for your letter of Jan. 15th (copy enclosed) congratulating me for an Honorable Mention.

Upon calling your office that very kind lady, advised that the "enclosed series' premium" was in error. I do not know whether or not the entire letter was in error.

In any event, your presidential series seemed to me to be of the highest interest and educational value!

I do not desire any premium, but wish that my evaluation of TRUMAN could be known to others. At the time in 1957 that I met HST, I thought little of it. Now I believe it was the most moving day of my life, so you may understand the extreme joy of your letter.

I have enclosed a self addressed stamp envelope for any reply you may make. (Last year the local post office informed me that any mail addressed to just [REDACTED] instead of [REDACTED] may get lost, and sent to [REDACTED] address).

Many thanks,

Dear [REDACTED]

Congratulations!

From the over 750 entries received for C-SPAN's American Presidents: Life Portraits viewer contest, yours has been judged as an Honorable Mention.

Please accept the enclosed series' premium as thanks for your participation. We hope you were entertained and increased your knowledge of our Presidents by watching the programming as well as from preparing your entry. And, thank you for watching the C-SPAN networks!

Once again, congratulations!

Sincerely,

Marty Dominguez
