

1/2/2000

Danvers, MA 01923-1959

Dear C-Span:

many thanks for the years I have enjoyed C-Span I and II.

Your series on the American Presidents was perfect.

Last week's query as to the person of the century with comments from listeners was very interesting.

I tried to call but circuits were busy. I would have nominated The American Woman.

She fought many battles in the 20th Century, and won most of them. Mothers, daughters, sisters, aunts.

Best wishes to your excellent staff for the year 2000.

O-AmalPao

Serving in the Military: 1901-1945 – an exhibit in the Memorial Education Center. By WWI, the Army and Navy had nurse corps; other women served in the Navy and Marine Corps. All services had women in uniform during WWII.

Women In Military Service For America Memorial Foundation, Inc.
Department 560, Washington, DC 20042-0560

Graphic Design by Staples & Charles Ltd, Alexandria, VA