C-Span

Today, Bill Welch of USA TODAY was a guest followed by a Democrat Congresswoman, Carolyn Kilpatrick. As Mr. Welch is unfailingly supportive of Democrats, you might say C-Span had two Democrats appearing this morning. (so many of the reporters who speak on Washington Journal from the various newspapers, and magazines are, to all intents and purposes, Democrats, consequently C-Span needs to take care because we will not get the "diversity" of opinion which is tremendously important in a free country.)

I note, too, that later today the Secretary of Education, a Democrat, will appear as will Janet Reno, and Barbara Boxer (at a supposedly non-partisan meeting of Women Lawyers, ain't that a joke?)

Our society is very much dominated by a left-wing culture; and it shocks me to realize how many of the men and women representing various institutions are very pro-Democrat.

C - Span, you do an absolutely fabulous job, and you cannot possibly know the political ideology of every guest who appears on your network.

I suppose what I'm saying is - beware! There will rarely be a guest from any of the major newspapers such as the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, the Chicago Tribune, the Miami Herald, the Baltimore Sun, the Dallas Morning News, the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, etc. who is supportive of Republicans. (The majority ~~of media~~ ^{of our media} are Democrat supporters.) Guests who are university professors, lawyers, social-services workers, library association members, etc. are also, invariably, Democrats.

Although the general public is not overwhelmingly Democrat, there is an overwhelmingly large population of Democrats in Washington, and elsewhere, who are always in front of the cameras.

I think of persons such as Pat Ireland of NOW, Eleanor Clift of Newsweek, Margaret Carlson of Time, Thomas Orlphant of the Boston Globe, Anthony Lewis of the New York Times, Roger Simon of the Chicago Tribune, Molly Ivins of the Dallas Morning News, E. J. Dionne of the Washington Post, Al Hunt of the Wall St. Journal, Marion Wright Edelman of the Children's Defense League, Gloria Steinem of the MS Foundation, Eleanor Smeal of the Feminist Majority, Jules Witcover of the Baltimore Sun, Joe Conason of the N.Y. Daily News, and on, and on, and on — the left is EVERYWHERE!

Where are their counterparts in the media, and women's groups, and 'for-the-children' groups, and lawyers' groups, and academic groups?

That is why, C-span, there is such a need to let your guests so that we, on the Republican side, can feel fully represented in this democratic, constitutional, republic.

Our complaints of being "under-represented" are NOT sound grapes, are not mindless ~~and~~ whining, but are GENUINE CONCERN that Republicans are constantly being TRASHED in this country and who speaks for them as the billions in our media, and elsewhere, are promoting and defending Democrats?

It matters!

WHERE do we ever read a NEGATIVE article about Ted Kennedy? WHEN did we ever read a POSITIVE article about Newt Gingrich?

WHERE do we ever read a NEGATIVE article about Barney Frank? WHEN do we ever read a POSITIVE article about Tom Delay?

WHEN did we ever read a NEGATIVE article about Wlad Hubball? (I actually saw a "fluff" piece about Simon NBC, telling us what a good man he is?) WHEN do we ever read a POSITIVE article about Dick Armay? (and Mr. Armay has never embezzled funds and spent time in jail!)

No, I am not happy with the enormous power of the media in this country to persuade people that Democrats are "tolerant and caring," and Republicans are "evil rogues - niks." It is not fair!
