

Tuesday, April 20, 1999.

Dear Sirs,

I have been watching your coverage of the Balkan War. I see you daily cover the NATO briefing, the Defense Department briefing, the State Department briefing, the White House briefing. This is too much, all of these agencies give the same point of view, their business is to promote the Clinton administration's Balkan War program. I also see you give much airtime to representatives of the Albanian faction in the war, representatives who also support and promote the Clinton Balkan War policy. And now I see you visiting and interviewing Albanian-American newspapers and journalists who also of course are promoting the Clinton Balkan War policy.

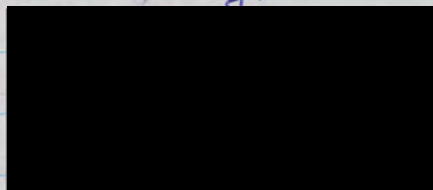

Come now, is it not time you at least pretend to be giving an evenhanded presentation of both sides in this conflict? I enclose an article which appeared in our local paper, the Herald-Star, out of Steubenville, Ohio. The article identifies two Serbian-American newspapers, perhaps you could visit and interview the journalists of these papers?

I find interesting your airing of the Serbian television news programming, however, could you not air it at a decent hour of the day, perhaps during the afternoon or in prime time, rather than near midnight or pre-dawn.

Please acknowledge receipt of my letter and respond to my comments and suggestions. Also, if you could please provide me with the addresses of the following organizations: THE CENTER FOR THE AMERICAN FOUNDING; INSTITUTE FOR BALKAN AFFAIRS; and the MASSACHUSETTS HISTORICAL SOCIETY. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

MINGO JUNCTION, OHIO, 43938