To whom it may concern,

I was watching Senator Bob Dole on C-Span, and I had some questions I would like to ask. Over the last four (4) years I have noticed that most Washington Politicians have become very concerned about our Federal Deficit, Crime, Unemployment, Poverty, & illegal immigration. Whether Republican or Democrat I think that everyone in Washington wants to solve these problems. I think that our jobs should not be sent overseas. That is what causes unemployment in my book. I work at a restaurant called the Cracker Barrel in Dalton, GA. I'm a dishwasher and I work with at least 15-20 Mexicans. None of them know ~~spanish~~ english, and to my knowledge don't pay any taxes, and if they do its not much. I'm tired of good decent hard-working Americans having their jobs taken from them. I just dont understand it. This is America. Let's take care of Americans. Not hurt them. I've seen mothers with two or three children file for unemployment due to losing their jobs to foreign people. And if this doesn't bother Washington then nothing will. I support President Clinton's free trade agreement with Canada and Mexico, but I think that it shouldn't be handed now. I think Washington should concentrate on three things right now such as Unemployment, Crime, Poverty. Matters with foreign countries should be put off for now. I like the crime bill that the President has. I think that our law-enforcement officials need more support. And that support is long overdue. We are the richest country in the world and we have starving men, women, and children on the streets. This in my mind is an outrage. It's like the government has abandoned the American people. Why? I think that all families should pay the same amount in taxes. Whether rich or poor everybody should pay the same amount. Our government should treat all people equal. No matter how much money they make. I got angry with President Clinton when he got that two-hundred haircut. What does he plan to prove by that. Nothing. That tells the American people that he doesn't care how he spends their tax money. I think President Clinton will go down in history as one of the worst Presidents we've ever had. I didn't vote for him. And I'm glad that I didn't waste my vote on him. I think the last President we had who was 100 percent honest was Jimmy Carter. He said he would never lie and he never ~~did~~ did. That's who we need in the White House right now. If he was to run ~~again~~ again he could beat Clinton, and his other opponents. I guess that I had more comments than I did questions. Would you please read my klder with concern. I have been considering a career in politics, but I have made no definite decision yet. IF you want, please write me back responding to my letter and comments. Thank you very much.
