Dear Mr. Lamb:

I want thank you even if belatedly for televising the Ted Weiss memorial service. It added a touching dimension to politics.

I also want to tell you I thought your visits to high schools during the elections was wonderful. Its too bad all students don't have teachers like those students did. If we want them to be future voters high school is a good time to educate them and show them that politics is very interesting.

Now for the downside of my letter. I could not believe you had Jerry Williams, Derek McGinty and Mark Davis on Journalist Roundtable October 30, 1992. That program is my favorite, I force myself awake at 6am to watch. What a disappointment to wake up to those three. I had to turn them off. It saddened me to see C-SPAN not maintain its high level of guests. I felt the same about Rush Lumbaugh. If someone wants to see those men (not gentlemen) they have their own shows. Is Howard Stern next? Your viewers don't deserve the verbal abuse dispensed by those men. We tune in to learn, not be insulted.

Aside from that, C-SPAN is such a pleasure, it has opened up a whole new world for me. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]
