I was a participant in that action of 21/9/45 & Subsequently -

It boggles my mind that one of the bloodiest battles in our history could be completely ignored - To me this is a mortal insult to the memories of over 7000 marines who bled that horrific mass of volcanic ash in 1945 !!!

Could it be that Lewington's Canadian origin caused some disrespect ??

The book was a Christmas gift from one of my grandchildren -

In reading the happenings of the 40's I was completely paleased by the author's omission of the Battle of Iwo Jima !! -

I tried calling the publisher Doubleday to confirm - got a "call back" promise - This didn't happen -

I took the book to a book seller and found out that no index reference existed

I returned the book for refund forthwith.

Dear Mr Lamb

I enjoy very much "Spain" offerings and commend yourself and your staff for the splendid product attained -

There is a question I'd ask and I'm almost sure you might be able to enlighten me.

It is possible I missed a book review which you most likely conducted with the author or authors of "The Century" etc; by Jennings & Brewer

I received a copy of that volume and noted a couple of understood or omitted facts and I'm wondering if you might have
