

Dear sir:

9/22/92

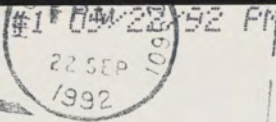

I am a 78 year old American (Republican - not relevant), who is among the 82% who think that the Clinton draft is unimportant in the election. Last weekend you spent so much of your time, energy, and resources on "getting the whole truth". It was so frustrating that everytime a "head hunter/s" came on - my TV went off!

Please forget that "D" word, and go after both Presidential Candidates and parties about another "D" word, the deficit, especially since they're not willing to face it.

Thank you!

Hickory, N.C. 28602

[REDACTED]
Hickory, N.C. 29602

President
C. Span
400 N. Capital St. N.W.
Suite 155
Washington, D.C. 20007-3422