Dear C-Span
Brian Lamb,
Brian;

For the past 2 years I've never even been able to get through on ANY open line to share with you and other callers, things that were important to me as to all of you. You have to wonder what time to get up and start placing your call to get through. So much for calling in.

Having said that, I would like to share with you, the enclosed for your information and reading what's on MY mind. The Letter to Congressman Bill McCollum of Florida, I have sent a copy to most of the Senators and Trial Managers from the House. Plain and simple, this entire scandle with the President, is nothing less then a Witch Hunt, peeking in closets and bedroom windows, and a Vendeta that Clinton was popular enough to win the election 2 times. Americans aren't as dumb and stupid as the Republicans think we are. They see themselves as the " RULERS " and we Americans as the Ruled.

How many Americans do you think have ever gone to a main library and sat for any length of time and really read the Federalist papers, read the writings of Thomas Paine, Alexander Hamilton, Thomas Jefferson, Etc, Etc, Etc ? You'd be lucky to find One in a hundred that has. Our lives have become so complex and complicated, living in the fast lane, who has time to really be fully informed as we used to be, years ago. Today, Schools and Teachers are more concerned and PreOccupied with teaching kids about safe sex, then with who Alexander Hamilton was and what he wrote. I know a boy, who at 12, didn't even know who George Washington was.

When I was teaching Sr.High, I had a 16 Yr Old boy who was driving his Mother's new Jaguar to school. Even the Principal didn't have as elegant a car. He drove a small cheap little Honda. What does all this tell you about Our informed kids of today ? They are saying just what the parents want them to say. With all the technology we are creating and inventing today, we've taken away a young person's ability to think for themselves. They have TV, The computer, Internet, A O L, Etc, Etc, Etc. With all that going for them, why should they stop and read the Constitution, the Federalist papers, or know who the 5th or 10th president of the United States was. I'll bet, many kids today can't even name, much less tell you where each State is. So, the bottom line is, we believe what members of the Congress and Senate tell us and are expected to believe them on faith, even BLIND FAITH.

A short time ago, Congressman Gephardt said to the American people, and I agree with him, that we, ALL of us, including members of the House and Senate, have to stop this business of dividing the nation, the business of defaming One another over matters that are of less importance then the business of running the country smoothly. Now, I may have his exact wording out of order, but basicaly, if you saw and heard him, he was, after all, on your program, you know also, what he meant. Moreover, as an educator, NOT an HISTORIAN, not a BOOK writer, not a famous household name in the news, just a Grass roots, down home retired Teacher, I agree with your guest, Mr. Welentz, and what he said about how the Congress and the trial managers, are, and have, totally misinterpeted the meaning of what the framers of the Constitution said, wrote and meant, when they drafted the Constitution and rules of Impeachment.

It is becomming very clear to me, as I am sure it is to many Americans, that the Republicans see themselves as the ONLY Ones who are fit to be the rulers and who must be the ruled. Our country has had 2 major Revolutions which took us to war, One with England, the other, with Ourselves. Unless we get our act together, and clean it up, it may not be to far off when we will be looking at another Revolution straight in the face all over again. Mr. Hyde talks about Flanders Field, and the Black Wall of names of the dead of Viet Nam vets, well, Mr. Hyde, if you continue to add fuel to the fire you've started, your Own State of Illinois, may see a Flanders Field in your Own back yard.

Brian, since I can't seem to get through to you on the phone to ask the questions about Lewinski, maybe in the next few days, as this Kangaroo Court goes on, maybe you can either answer my questions or ask some of your guests for an answer. Thank you for C-Span which I watch more then all the other stations on TV. Ha, if I keep watching you long enough, I may even learn enough to get my Own PhD. Thanks.

Warmest Regards & Sincerely,

Congressman Bill McCollum;
SIR;

Much as I didn't want to watch the on going crucifixion of another BILL, "CLINTON", I turned the TV on just as you were making your contribution with nails. What prompted me to be mad enough to sit down and write to you, is, that you've missed the most important fact of all. Of course, I did watch the Committee hearings and non of you bothered to call Lewinski to those hearings. All you heard was Starr painting the grimest picture of a Human Being, a President, who like YOU, has his Own share and measure of faults, unless, that is, you, SIR, are able to walk on water.

If that is so, then your staff is a very Blessed staff to have such a HOLY MAN to work for. When I was teaching school, I came to see and realize something one of my Professors told me when I was a College student at U C L A. He said that along the road of life, I'd see and meet many Functional Illiterates who have managed to con their way into important positions. Well, I've met a few teachers that should never have gotten teaching credentials, 2 Principals who knew less then the entire student body at school. And now, some who dare call themselves members of Congress.

So much for President Lincoln's saying about FOOLING all the people, you seem to have managed doing that in Florida very well. The fact that you and the Committee have not even bothered to consider, was/is, WHAT THE HELL WAS LEWINSKI doing in the White House in the 1st place, how did she con her way into that job, how was it that she had as much access to the President, as she did? Was she really qualified to be working in the White House and just what work did she really do? One of the things we all do know she did, the question is, where did she learn to do this and from whom? Was this really her stock and trade? It is also a fact that she had designs on the President, she stalked him, knowing his weakness, which raises the possibility that HAS NOT been raised, that she was set up to go after the President by an over zelous bunch of mad as killer Bees, Republicans.

You people in Government, have forgotten that you are there because we sent you there to do the Country's work, not peek in closets and bedroom windows, unless of course, the job has become so boring you haven't anything better to do. The Disease Ronald Reagan has, must be contagious because all you Republicans have forgotten that you are a " GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE - BY THE PEOPLE - AND FOR THE PEOPLE ". Maybe that's too heavy for your small little minds. Maybe it's time we returned to the Old days when members of Congress spent more time in their Own district then in Washington. All of you seem to have lost touch with the voters and the Nation as a whole.

I grew up at the tail end of the depression and my folks used to tell me a lot about the days of the mobs, Mafia, and Capone. I came to know what a Vendeta was, I am Italian, I grew up in an Italian neighborhood, and I've seen violence in and OUT of the Service, I've even been a Victim of a gang. Instead of concentrating on declaring war on drugs and drug dealers and the people and Countries that produce them, you have declared war on the President because he won the election twice. The Whitewater thing has shown and proved to be, a waste of time and tax dollars, you Trial Managers are going on a fishing expedition hoping to land the biggest catch, the President.

Now, you said to the Senators, " If you believe Lewinski, then you MUST NOT believe Bill Clinton " And, Visa versa. Well, I have the biggest problem believing Lewinski because I believe, all of you in some way, planted her in the White House and I'll bet if that point were fully investigated, it would be proved. LEWINSKI is nothing more then a cheap sleezy 2 bit whore all of you Republicans managed to seek out of the gutter. The purpose ? To play on Clinton's weakness, repugnant and reprehensible as it was.

AND, you all call yourselves GOOD CHRISTIANS ? HOW DARE YOU call yourselves that ? All of you are like the low lifers that wanted JESUS crucified because HE tried to teach us how to love One another and forgive each other's sins as JESUS forgives. But then, I guess that's too heavy for all of you to do and even understand.

Well, I just hope the people of Florida see the light, and see what a fool you've made of them. I hope they wake up to reality, that life here on this earth, is NOT HEAVEN. It's hard, the roads are full of pot holes which some of us fall into, including even Presidents. I hope this will be the sunset of your Political career. Shame on you, SIR.
