Dear Brian,

This is a note from an ardent admirer of C-Span and you! You and your programs have opened a new world to all your viewers! Long live! (and, yes, to agree with the article in ~~the~~ mag. I see in ~~of~~ The New York Times, I, too, have no idea of your political leaning!)

My husband & I have just changed our summer residence to Sequim, Wa., & there is no C-span! Is there anything that you can do to expedite our referring it? (Sequim rhymes with SWIM)

But the big question that bothers me is why do we have an ambassador to the Vatican? For over a hundred years we didn't, you know. Pres. Reagan appointed one. I'd much rather the money went toward education. I'm awaiting your answer because no one else knows.
Many, many thanks, [redacted]
