

[REDACTED]
Hallandale, Fla. 33009
[REDACTED]

November 27, 1998

Mr. Brian Lamb
C-SPAN
400 North Capitol St., NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

o.wj

Dear Mr. Lamb:

Perhaps you know already that I am among your most loyal watchers of your SUPER programs -- a true blessing for us, concerned citizens of this great country.

I want you to know how much I enjoyed your having Balint Vazsonyi on your Washington Journal, November 13th. He was a fresh breath of air with his deep understanding of the danger we face in turning our beloved country into a "socialist" regime. This is done by deception and lies; I call it pure propaganda by those who advance the idea that government is the best solution to resolve our problems. Frankly, those are the same people who artificially create the problems. I know when I see and hear "propaganda"; I am very sensitive to it having been exposed to it for too long by the tyrants I had to live under behind the iron curtain.

For your information, I tried to call in to speak to Mr. Vazsonyi without success. The busy signal did not stop. The same happened today when I tried to call as an immigrant to the USA designed exclusively on your Washington Journal.

I realize that you had Balint Vazsonyi on Booknotes ("America's 30 Years War: Who Is Winning?") and I missed it being away at that time. Is there any way that I can see it? In any event, I would ask you to have Mr. Vazsonyi more often on your program for the sake of educating our citizens, so important to preserve our nation as envisioned by our Founding Fathers. I plead with you, with passion, don't disregard my request, don't let this "window of opportunity" escape your wise mind.

I would also like to refer to my letter of March 21st sent to you suggesting your considering for Booknotes Ruth Glasberg Gold's book RUTH'S JOURNEY A SURVIVOR'S MEMOIR. While I received acknowledgment of my letter from your Viewer Services Department, I am still waiting to hear about your decision regarding the above. I would very much appreciate to receive a reply about it and urge you again to come up with a favorable view to schedule this book on Booknotes. For your convenience, I am enclosing a copy of my letter.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I want to thank you for affording me your attention and rendering such a great service to our country.

Sincerely yours,
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
Hallandale, Fla. 33009
[REDACTED]

March 21, 1998

Mr. Brian Lamb
C-SPAN
400 North Capitol St., NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear Mr. Lamb:

I am one of the "solid junkies" watching C-SPAN with great interest and delight. I got my best education from C-SPAN and you are the GREATEST.

I am watching regularly in the morning the Washington Journal, Booknotes and everything in between. However, I have never made my voice heard via call-in or writing, but here I come with a suggestion. Actually, it is more than a suggestion, I dare say I urge you to seriously consider scheduling on Booknotes author Ruth Glasberg Gold whose book's title RUTH'S JOURNEY A SURVIVOR'S MEMOIR was published by the University Press of Florida (15 Northwest 15th Street, Gainesville, Fla. 32611).

While it is well known what a devastation the concentration camps at Auschwitz, Buchenwald, Treblinka brought upon the Jewish people, not many heard about the tragedies that occurred at this same time in Transnistria. Thanks to Ruth Gold an important piece of history is coming to light and I strongly feel that C-SPAN should be the "forum" to spread this knowledge and make it part of your record.

I am taking the liberty to inform you herewith Ruth Gold's address and telephone number: [REDACTED] Bay Harbor Islands, Fla. 33154; [REDACTED] Also, I am sending you a copy of the very touching letter that Janet Parshall, the Talk Show Host, sent to Mrs. Gold after interviewing her.

I am looking forward to your reply with a great deal of anticipation and hope that you will see the value of programming this telling story and interviewing Ruth Gold on Booknotes.

Sincerely yours,

P.S. It happens so that I was born in the same place and year as Ruth Gold and lost a number of my relatives in Transnistria, too.

[REDACTED]

Hallandale 00, FL 33009

Mr. Brian Lamb
C-SPAN
400 North Capitol St., NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

2000171330

